The Lenox Hill Democratic Club

will be holding its annual cocktail reception on

Thursday April 12, 2012

at The Players, 16 Gramercy Park South, (20th St. East of Park Ave.) from 7:00 to 9:00 pm.

We are especially pleased to announce that the club will be honoring:

State Assemblyman Micah Kellner

Assembly Member Kellner represents New York's 65th Assembly District which encompasses the Upper East Side, Yorkville and Roosevelt Island. Since his election in 2007, Assembly Member Kellner has become the State's leading advocate for people with disabilities and has fought to improve the lives of everyday New Yorkers. This past year, he played a crucial role in expanding access in New York City's transportation system for people with disabilities.

Dear Club Members and Friends:

We hope that you will take this opportunity to become sponsor of our event by purchasing a ticket at one of the following contribution levels: Co-Chair at $1,000, Benefactor at $500, Patron at $250, and Friend at $150.

All sponsors will appear on the formal event invitation and program. Formal invitation will be sent out. Please return this form no later than March 1st, 2012 to be sure your name will be included on the invitation. A regular event ticket will be $125. The Event cost for dues Paying members of the Lenox Hill Democratic Club is $100 per ticket.
